

AMAG PUBLISHER

AMAG is an international publisher, that carefully conceives, edits and designs publications and complementary services on architecture, design and contemporary art, through several lines of work: magazine; books; exhibitions curating, design, assembly and creation of architecture and art interventions; graphic design, visual identity, sign systems and merchandising.

With a highly conceptual approach, each project reveals a new challenge and unveils a new opportunity and experience to get close to the authors and produce unique and significant works target to the highest possible standards.

Offering unimaginable flood of contents, AMAG publisher brings together authors, technicians and artists who stand for quality and tenacity in their own right, with a special graphic design.

Based on passion for communication and our aim to embrace and support subjects as design, architecture, art and social concerns, we develop singular and special publications.

True to our founding principles, each title and production has a unique approach based on values and significant contents to challenge, satisfy and most of all, inspire you.
